

Accreditation (PACR) and Professional Standards

Professional Accreditation of Conservator-Restorers (PACR) for conservation professionals wishing

Accredited status demonstrates that a practitioner is a fully-qualified and capable professional. The PACR

- Introduction Summary of Steps to Accreditation and FAQ's
- Article New ACRs reflect on their own experience of the PACR process
- For New Applicants \(e.g. How to Apply\) Use this section to access PACR guide and application form
- PACR Pathway - to support Icon members work towards PACR
- Events: PACR clinics this Spring will be held in London, Birmingham and Edinburgh
-
-
-
-
- Mentor training event 5th March 2015 more info
- Professional Standards in Conservation
- Promoting PACR - read this blog by Beth Werrett, ACR
- For Accredited Members \(e.g. PACR Logo guidance; Conservation Register\)
- Continuing Professional Development \(CPD\)

- For the Accreditation Committee, Assessors and Mentors
- 2007 PACR Review - Final Report and Action Plan

ADDRESS FOR SUBMITTING APPLICATIONS

All PACR applications, Register of Intention forms and CPD reviews should be sent to:

Institute of Conservation, PO Box 7452
Hilton, Blandford Forum Dorset DT11 1BU

AND NOT TO THE LONDON OFFICE OF ICON